Future Opportunities

AAT (Association of Accounting Technicians) qualifications open up huge opportunities nationally and internationally. The qualifications are recognised throughout the world; from small local enterprises to the biggest multinationals, there is a demand for qualified accounting staff.

You can progress in your career by gaining further AAT qualifications at Level 3 and 4. All the UK professional accountancy bodies recognise the AAT accounting qualification and may offer AAT members exemptions.

Tell Me More

The Sheffield College was awarded Winner of the 2015 AAT Award for Training Provider of the Year (Medium).

Extra Costs

You will need a textbook for each unit. Your tutor will advise you on the cheapest source at the start of the course, and you are advised to budget around £75 for these books. Limited textbooks are available in the college LRC for short term loans.

Professional membership of AAT is a requirement (£135 for the first year) and examination resits carry an additional charge (approximately £60).
