

Internship Pathway: Skills for Living and Work

Overview

The Internship Pathway: Skills for Living and Work has been designed for individuals who are preparing for the transition from post-16 education into adulthood.

Its intent is to provide a stepping-stone to a Supported Internship or to provide skills for independence and work. It is suitable for individuals who are ready to undertake a supported work placement outside of the college.

Some individuals may still be required to undertake discrete English and maths sessions and work towards assessments, where appropriate.

This pathway takes 1–2 years to complete.

What will be studied

Working together

Skills for independence – managing money, benefits, travel

Job searching skills

Understanding forms

Work-related activity

How will individuals be assessed?

Individuals will be continually assessed against their EHCP targets through a range of methods including task-based, observations and booklet work.

Some individuals will be assessed by an external assessment for English and maths.

Individuals will be assessed using a range of methods in a work-related environment.

What can individuals do after?

Individuals may progress onto other supported programmes within Bloom. Others may move onto higher level qualifications at any of the college campuses.

Some individuals may wish to be supported out of education, for example, to access a social care provision or employment through a Supported Internship.
